ABOUT ME

Hi there!

Welcome! I'm Mary Ann Camacho, a UX/UI designer. With a passion for creating/coding webpage, I am professional at my works.

My journey in this profession began at my high school days, and since then, I've achieved some projects due to my organizations and start freelancing. I believe in "Creativity begins within our minds". Outside of my profession, I also enjoy playing guitars and designing for simple pubmatgs for my relatives

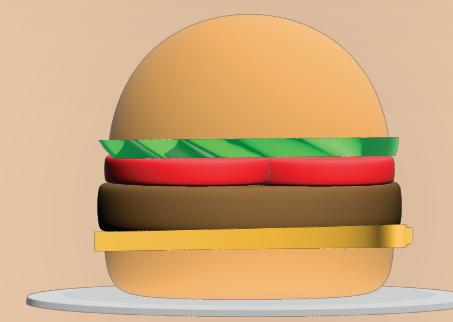

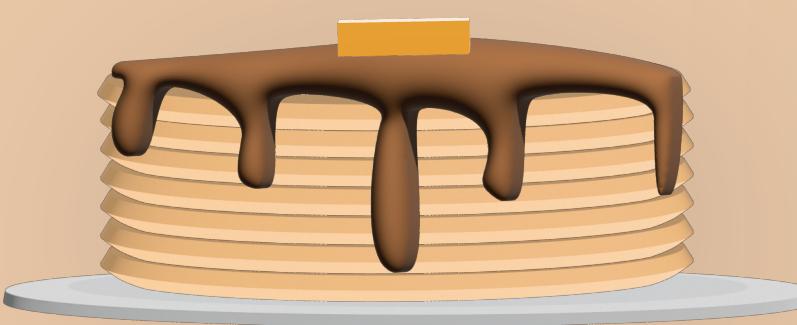

Feel free to explore my works/projects, where I showcase my creativity. If you have any questions or would like to collaborate, email me or contact me,

Thank you for visiting!
